

Online Lecture through YouTube

Students of Swami Vivekanand College Ghumarwin use e-products like videos, recordings, etc. as a part of their academic requirement. They use the e-content facility available on the internet like YouTube, face book and other mediums to download their e- products. However, the college does not have in-house facility for e-content development such as media centre, recording facility and lecture capturing system.

Students Attending Lecture through YouTube